Dear Miss Mason

I am glad to be able to say that I have ~~now~~ not actually sent (but will be sent for) my Essay on Ethics
to the type writer

8p4pneu8

at Oxford, as soon as I get it I will send it to you -

I think I must leave it to you to write a few lines of introduction now as the actual thesis set in the examining

213p5pneu8

with a hardly by suitable to your Review

Yours sincerely

Dear Miss Mason

I have send a type written copy of my ^{my} MS Essay - I looked at things very carefully & made some corrections & slight alterations - I have now gone through the type copy & made a few notes - I don't know whether you allow Greek letters to enter into your review - I don't know what to suggest for 2 ex 21 first principles - the word also means entering a beginning but I don't see how we can write Archae for it - that being the use made of it as archaeology, then there's monarchy

I am too weak to make any long effort to put the paper in to improve for your review - I must leave that to you.
 As if the paper is any or alter way you like - I think one or two papers in my K.D.F. (in my collection my little book) might ~~be as useful as a kind~~ p 189 Reason & Mind & Logos Handing

193 first principles 215 practical Reason only please do not get any hint that it was a juvenile essay or an examination; nor any allusion to my name

894p4pneu8

In fact use it in any way which think may be useful or don't use it at all if you are not satisfied

Yr sincerely

W. C. C. C.

Dear Miss Mason
I am glad to learn that you are recovering your strength, & thank you for taking the trouble to write to me.
I am abroad you

215p3pneu8

much overestimated
my present efforts you must remember that I had to confuse the examinee with the result of reading various books rather than merely power

When I looked at it before sending it

25 p 4 p n e u 8

to you it seemed to rest on one narrow principle or theory morality does not depend on experience of pleasures, pains, etc. - but on the ~~higher~~ simpler belief in the good as a reality above ourselves; and that I seemed to rest on authority rather than

15p5pneu8

on philosophical argument

But you may say you like with it (I mean alter ~~just~~ or indeed your own thoughts)
provided that you do not give the slightest hint of where it comes from.

Thanks for your reply patting with my weak up which increases - but I shall never forget the interest of your

is it yours sincerely

Dear Miss Mason

I was going to write you ^{having} ^{this morning} received ^{my own} copy of the Parents' Review.
Now the second delivery brings me your gift of another copy with your very kind letter your young people as "awfully" flattering to
me

Any how it is a great pleasure to hear that my little book is still useful

It is any flattery to my youthful Essay of 60 years ago to come to life again in this parents review -

I wish I had had a little more stress on Butler's Sermons

I see ~~to~~ that Butler is only just alluded to in the last page

I hope you are keeping fairly well with all your hard work

A very valuable work has been lately publish ed by Dr. Croplegh Dublin ^{DD} who has come into a neighbouring parish
It is called the Bible in 216p6pneu8

the light of the present day -- He says the Bible speaks for itself (as Coleridge said Reason & Religion are their own evidence) so he does not rest evidence on miracles &c But he goes through a series of answers to objections from science, from history (inaccuracy &c) and from moral objections such as the slay-ing of the Canaanites &c This is the work of a profound scholar

Another little book by Miss Cantland I will send you

Yr. very sincerely
H. C. Cantland
